Sajid asks you:

"HELP ME TO STAY HERE!"

AS YOU KNOW, a groovy new TV series called Maya has just been cancelled and its very last show will be seen February 10th. One of its stars, Sajid Khan is a 16-year-old Indian boy who is now living in America for the very first time. After filming Maya for many months in India—with his best friend Jay North—Sajid came to the States hoping to begin an exciting movie and TV career. Upon the cancellation of Maya, a shadow fell across his plans for a moment—but he is still under contract to MGM and he will definitely be in America for at least seven more months.

Here is Sajid's message to you:

Dear 16-ers,

The first editor I met in America was your friend and mine, Gloria Stavers. She took the very first pictures of me here and did my very first interview here. Many months have passed since that time, but my deep attachment to 16 and its millions of readers has only increased—and I hope you feel the same way about me.

Life here has been a truly magnificent experience. America is a country full of beautiful, wonderful people and untold opportunities. I hope that I shall be fortunate enough to stay here and continue to share all these things with you. Right now, my plans are very much up in the air, but I am quite hopeful that something will come along very soon that will enable me to once again appear on your TV or movie screens. If that happens, then I will be able to stay here in America!

If you feel the way I do, and if you want me to stay as much as I want to stay—then you can help me. Here's how you can help me—and it is very easy: Send me a card or a letter and tell me how you feel. Though I might not be able to personally answer every single letter I get, I shall try to—and I most definitely shall read each and every one of them. I have a great deal of faith in the youth of America and their enormous power to create "happenings." It was all of you young 16-ers who helped me to "happen" here in the first place. You have spoiled me—I don't want to go away—so please help me to stay here.

Love

Sajid

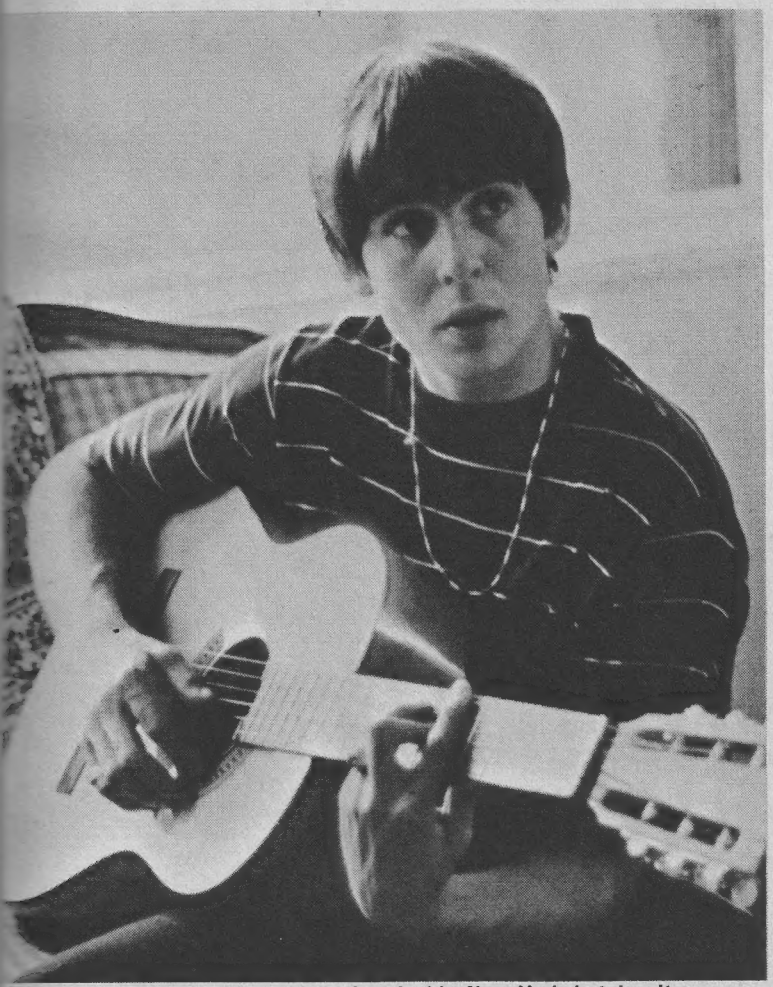
'MONKEES & ME'

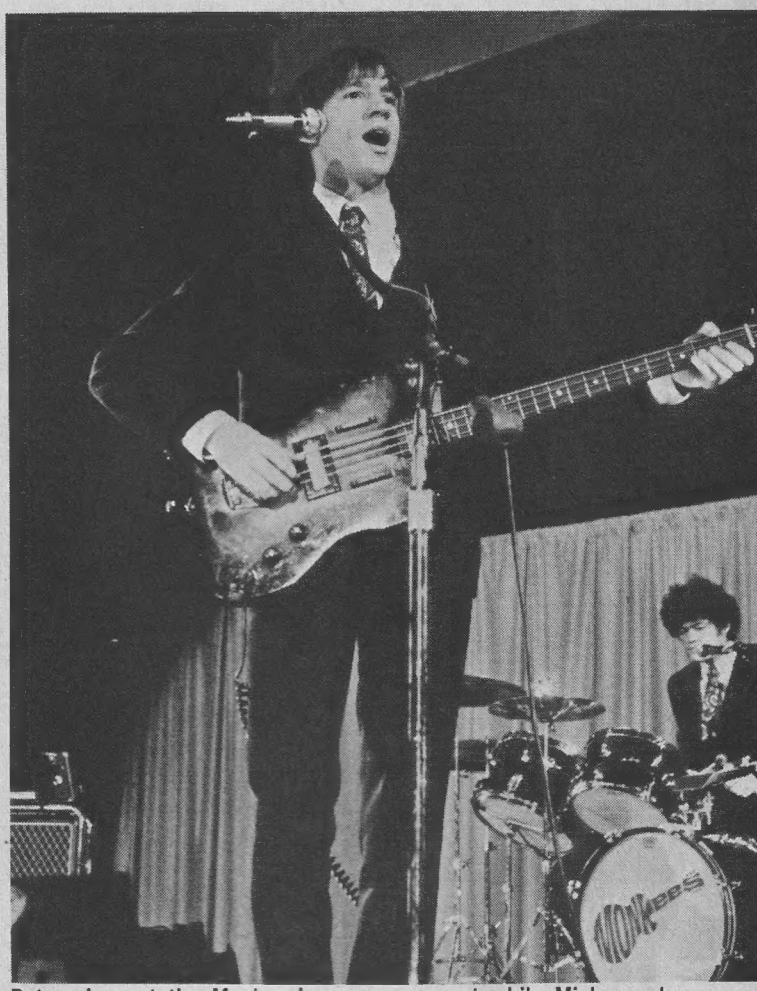
BY JEFF NEAL

DAVY'S NEW YORK BUDDY

SHARES HIS MONKEE SUMMER EXPERIENCES WITH YOU!



Davy practices on his guitar in his New York hotel suite.



Peter sings at the Monkees' summer concert while Micky works over the drums.

AT THE END of last June I knew that July would be an exciting month, and I was looking forward to it. But ltitle did I know how exciting! I thought the Monkees were due in New York City on July 12th to start their live concert series at Forest Hills Stadium. Boy, was I wrong! A host of unscheduled events were to happen before then! So let me start from the beginning and tell you all about it:

On July 5th , I was listening to the radio at about 3 o'clock in the afternoon when, all of a sudden, a bulletin was announced: the WMCA Good Guys were going to host a Monkees' press conference at 4 P.M. the next day! I was flabbergasted, because I had heard nothing about this from my pal Davy Jones. I called 16's editor, Gloria Stavers, to see if she knew what was happening. She told me that she had just received a telegram inviting her to the press conference—and she didn't know whether she could take me along or not. I could not get in touch with Davy because he was in England (actually, he was over the Atlantic, flying to New York).

You can well imagine that I did not relax for the rest of that day—and that night I hardly slept at all. I got up the next morning in a trance, wondering what would happen within the next few hours. By 2 P.M. I'd just about given up hope when the phone rang. It was Davy.

"I can't talk now, Jeff," he said hurriedly. "Meet me at the Warwick at four o'clock. We're having a press conference. See you then." CLICK. I didn't even get a chance to say hello. But that didn't matter—I was too excited to talk, anyway!

I knew I couldn't get into the press conference by myself, so I was "escorted" by Gloria Stavers. We met at 16's New York office and walked to the Warwick Hotel together. When we arrived, there were mobs and mobs of teenage girls outside. Gloria showed her telegram and the security guards escorted us to the main press room of the hotel.

MONKEES APPEAR

It wasn't long before the Monkees were presented and Davy, Micky, Peter and Mike came out in all their glory. David was wearing an achkan with his favorite silver bell and Indian beads around his neck. Micky had on an American Indian jacket. Peter wore a suede cowboy shirt with six strands of his favorite bells and beads—and Mike wore a suede jacket with a striped turtleneck shirt. They looked fantastic.

After about 15 minutes of picture-taking, we were all led to the main ballroom for the interview. The boys were asked all sorts of questions. Ward Sylvester, production executive of The Monkees, was in charge of the conference. When it was over, I started to walk out—but Ward ran over to Davy takes over the stage.

And then Mike comes on.

Gloria and me and said that David was expecting us in his suite upstairs. How happy I was!

When we arrived at the suite, Peter was sitting in the middle of a crowd of people and Davy was talking to WMCA deejay Gary Stevens.

Davy came over to us and said, "Hi, I'd like you to meet Gary Stevens." We all started to chat and more pictures were shot, and before we knew it the time came to leave. The Monkees had to make an early plane flight that evening. But I wasn't disappointed, because I knew they would be back the following week for the biggest and greatest time of all.

RETURN OF THE MONKEES

Davy and the rest of the guys returned to New York on July 13th. Davy called me from the hotel and told me to pick up guest tickets for the Monkee concerts the next morning at his suite.

When I arrived (bright and early) the next day, Davy looked great. He was well-rested. I picked up the tickets and joined him for breakfast. He ordered a pitcher full of fresh orange juice, toast (with plenty of jelly), and a quart of milk. I left soon after, because Davy and the guys wanted to go to the stadium to check the amps and equipment.

At 8:30 that night my guests and I arrived at the Forest Hills Stadium and sat down to see three great acts before "our" guys went on. The Sundowners came on first, followed by Lynne Randell and the Jimi Hendrix Experience. They were all absolutely great and the audience loved them.

But when the Monkees made their grand appearance—to the tune of their theme song—everyone went wild! The cameras never stopped flashing and the screaming was unbelievable! Each Monkee was fantastic in his own way. Davy sang Gonna Build Me A Mountain. Mike played the harmonica. Micky did his James Brown routine—and Peter played the banjo. All this—plus another 35 minutes of the most staggering "talent show" in the world!

After the concert, we went to the hotel and spent a few hours chatting with Davy in the "Courtesy Suite." David Pearl, Neko and a host of others were there too.

ENCORE MONKEES!

The next evening I again went to the concert. Again it was great. Again we went to the hotel afterwards. Again we talked. And on Sunday I again went to the concert. But Sunday was different. I went with Gloria Stavers and Dino Danelli of the Rascals. It was a madhouse when the kids in the audience recognized Dino. We had to have the police guard our seats, and Dino had to escape—surrounded by security guards—before the concert was over! But Dino thought the whole thing was a groove, and enjoyed every minute of it.

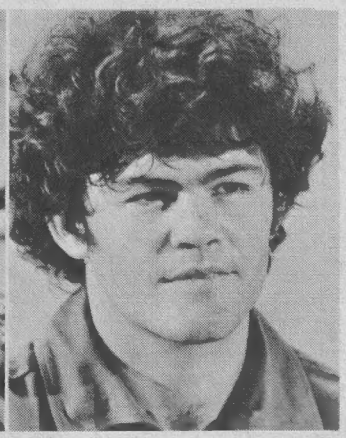
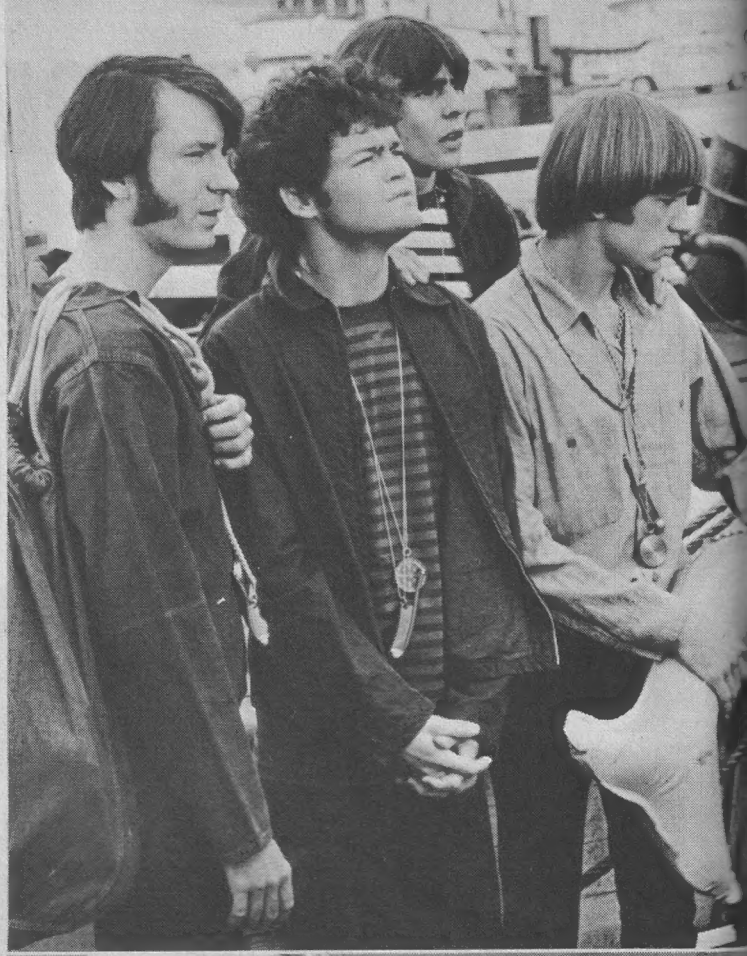
Davy takes a "breather" after the performance and chats with his New York friends.



Micky listens to the conversation —a moment of rare repose.



Later, when we all got back to the hotel, it was very interesting to listen to Dino and Davy's conversation. They really enjoyed each other. They covered all subjects from music to clothes to—yep, you guessed it—girls!

Soon it was time to split, so it was "farewell" once more. But I was startled as we were leaving. Davy said, "I'll see you next week. I'm coming in on Monday to record."

I almost fell on my face! This was too good to be true! But again—here goes:

EVEN MORE MONKEES

We spoke to Davy (in Cleveland) on Sunday night and he told us to be at RCA Studios at 12 noon the next day. When we walked in, Davy was sleeping on the couch, Micky was cutting the harmony for Daydream Believer (which was called Wake Up Sleepy Jean at the time—the title was later changed) and the Monkees' record producer Chip Douglas was looking thoroughly relieved. When Micky finished Daydream, Chip awakened Davy and they began to cut She Hangs Out and Star Collector. They had no break, because the Monkees were on the run as usual, and had to catch a 5 o'clock plane. So before we knew it, they were going again. Davy's parting words were, "I'll see you soon" —and off they went.

That's all for this time. The Monkees and all of us 16-ers will see you in the April issue of 16, which goes on sale February 20th.

BEATLES LATEST NEWS & VIEWS

THE BEATLES RETURN!

FLASH! Any Beatle fans who missed the far-out foursome's 1966 concerts in the United States — and shed tears of disappointment at the rumors that they would not appear in concert here again — weep no more! In the late spring (or early summer) of this year, the New Madison Square Garden (with seats for 20,000) will have its gala opening in New York City. Guess who just might be headlining the bill? The Beatles — that's who! (Did you ever think you'd find England's four top flower-children in a "square" garden?) The Beatles' friend and road manager, Neil Aspinall, flew over from Bonnie Britain to lay the groundwork and start hopeful negotiations. As of this printing, it looks pretty good. Keep your collective fingers crossed!

SGT. PEPPER IN NEW YORK

Plans are still underway for the opening of the Beatles' very own disco – Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club – which will soon be a welcome addition to New York night-life. There is only one problem – John and Paul just can't seem to get their heads together about the type of club it's going to be!

John wants a big, wild and wooly room filled with flashing lights and lots of action. Peaceful Paul is pitching for a quiet, intimate and more romantic club. C'mon, fellas – make up your minds!

JACKS OF ALL TRADES

John, Paul, George and Ringo once again proved their versatility by editing their TV film Magical Mystery Tour all by themselves. Anyone who knows about the technical problems involved in film editing will have to doff their hats in respect! Is there anything those guys can't do?

NEW TUNES

There are six tasty new tunes in Magical Mystery Tour. John and Paul penned Your Mother Should Know, I Am The Walrus, The Fool On The Hill, Flying and the title song – Magical Mystery Tour. George Harrison wrote (and sings) Blue Jay Way. Why not give their Capitol LP a spin and treat yourself to some ambrosia for the ear!

JOHN & JIMI MEET THE ESKIMOS

The Tlingit Eskimos (an offshoot of the American Indians) call the chilly ice-floes of Alaska their home. The Tlingits don't spend all their time "rubbing noses" – they are musicians too! They play a strange string instrument that has a sound unlike any other in the world!

That strange sound must be pretty loud, 'cos John Lennon and Jimi Hendrix took a trip to the tundras to do some research on it. (Do you think the next new sound in music might be as old as the musical heritage of the Tlingit Indians?

JULIAN LENNON — FIRE CHIEF?

Five-year-old Julian Lennon, who wants to drive a fire engine when he grows up, got a chance to watch his illustrious dad at work on Magical Mystery Tour. When John was asked what he wants Julian to be when he grows up, he replied: "I could tell you some of the things I hope he won't be!"

Paul McCartney (always a favorite with the kiddies) posed for a picture or two with Julian. Paul said that he thought Julian has his dad's ways and his mom's good looks. What do you think?

COLOR CARTOON

Work has been completed on the Beatles' 85-minute color cartoon feature Yellow Submarine. They wrote four new songs for the film and used seven from the Sergeant Pepper LP. The title song, Yellow Submarine, inspired the whole idea. From the advance stills, the color and art look fascinating. Look for the cartoon this summer!

RINGO — THE STAR!

When you call Ringo by his full name, put the emphasis on Starr. Ringo is playing a Mexican gardener in the forthcoming (and sure to be controversial) new movie Candy. He's in good company too, 'cos Richard Burton, Marlon Brando and Peter Sellers are also in the film. Who knows – maybe when Academy Award time rolls around again, there might be an Oscar with Ringo's name on it!

That ties up the Beatle package this month, but by the time you read this John, Paul, George and Ringo will probably have astounded us all with something new! The Beatles are not only trend-setters, but news-makers as well!

Julian Lennon and his dad during the filming of Magical Mystery Tour.

Julian and "Uncle" Paul discuss the wonders of nature during a coffee break in the filming.

A sample of Beatle goodies to come: Yellow Submarine, a full-length color cartoon feature.

George listens to the playback of his new song, Blue Jay Way.

Ringo Starr — movie star!

DEAR CHER...

BLEMISH PROBLEM

Dear Cher,

Pimples are ruining my life! I've tried everything on the market and nothing seems to work. Should I give up?

Troubled

Silver Spring, Md.

• Dear Troubled,

Have you seen a dermatologist (skin physician) who can prescribe special treatment for your particular skin problem? Remember that "drug store remedies" may work for some people, but may not be the best for you. Diet, personal cleanliness and proper medication all work together to clear up blemishes and no part of the treatment should be neglected. Try to take this opportunity to develop inner beauty. Spend time out-of-doors and you'll find that nature is not perturbed by outer blemishes. Find your special beauty and bring it out. When your skin is clear at last, you'll be much more than just a pretty face.

STAR-STRUCK

Dear Cher,

I have always wanted to be a television star. It's all I think about. I've tried hobbies, but nothing seems to work. Can you help me?

Janet

Lebanon, Ind.

• Dear Janet,

Many people become stars by accident — by being at the right place at the right time — but most roads to stardom are paved with lots of study and hard work. There is no one way to become a star, but if you are serious and dedicated make your dream a long-term hobby. Try out for plays in your school and community, arrange to visit a local TV station for a look behind the scenes, and obtain college catalogues from schools with good dramatic departments. Remember: acting or performing is not an easy or an overnight career. It takes a lot of hard work. Good luck!

DEAR SONNY...

MINI-KICKER

Dear Sonny,

What do boys think of mini-skirts? I wore a mini-skirt to school once and my boy friend laughed at me during a kick-ball game. Did he laugh because I fell down — or because he doesn't like mini-skirts?

Confused

Albion, N.Y.

• Dear Confused,

He probably laughed because it is funny to see the problems girls have with their mini-skirts. Most boys like mini-skirts if they are worn for the appropriate occasion and if the girl knows how to wear them. Playing kick-ball doesn't sound like one of the best times to wear a mini-skirt. Why don't you confine your mini's to less strenuous activities?

GROOVY GIANT

Dear Sonny,

I am 14 years old and quite cute, but very few boys want to go out with me. The problem is that I'm 5 feet and 11 inches tall. I'm crazy about a guy who is two inches shorter than I am, and he hardly seems to know that I'm alive! What can I do to get him to ask me out?

Jolly Green Giant

Gilbert, Minn.

• Dear Jolly,

The clue is in your signature — be "jolly"! Tall girls in junior high and high school have problems because boys are often afraid of anyone unusual. But if you are graceful, composed and self-assured, you can use your height to your advantage. One of the most beautiful women I ever saw (except Cher, of course!) was a modeling instructor who was six feet tall in her stocking feet. She was elegant! The minimum height for a high-fashion model is five feet and eight inches. Practice walking tall and making every gesture and movement as simple and graceful as possible. When you are at ease with your height — everyone else will be at ease with you!

That's it for now. If you have a personal problem of any nature, just write to us at the address below and we will try to help you. Our address is:

Melanie and girls meet "The Bat Girl", Yvonne Craig.

THE SKY east of Los Angeles was full of pretty teenage girls as the jet planes brought the finalists to Hollywood for the Miss 16 of America Contest. On the ground, the chaperones and 16 Magazine staff members waited to take the girls to the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel — and fun and excitement.

At the first night's dinner party, their hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Julian F. Myers. Mr. Myers is the head of KKOG-TV in Ventura. At the party they met 1967's Miss 16 of America, Marsha Beaugez, and also Dodie Myers, who held the honor in 1966. Later, they visited Graumann's Chinese Theatre and saw the footprints of the stars.

New friends were made as the girls got to know each other, and something seemed to happen every minute. One night was Celebrity Night in the Miss 16 Club Room at the hotel, and the girls and their chaperones found themselves talking with dozens of familiar faces — stars of television and movies.

The next day, limousines took the Miss 16 finalists to Universal City movie studios, where they saw how movies are made.

The rest of the girls' time was spent in rehearsals for the contest with their coach, Karen Smith, or swimming in the palm tree-bordered pool, shopping for souvenirs and voting for the most popular finalist. This vote ended in a tie — Laurie Venning of Virginia and "Kitty" Bradford of Montana both were voted "most congenial". 16 Magazine gave each of them a trophy and a glamorous and petite Bonnie watch by Belforte.

On the last day the televised contest was held (as shown on Pages 24 and 25) where the winner received: a $2,000 scholarship award from 16 Magazine, which also arranged for her to receive a beautiful 14 kt. Endearment, 23-jewel diamond watch by Benrus; a complete wardrobe, including a silver Lurex A-line mini-coatdress, a blue-bonded, A-line skimmer Orlon with roll collar, brass buttons and gold chain hip-belt, and a white tuck-front, bonded Orlon knit dress with gold buttons — all from "J.P.'s Only", the Junior Petite division of Puritan Fashions Corp.

If YOU would like to enter a local Miss 16 Contest this spring, write or phone the most popular radio or TV personality in your city, or write directly to the Secretary of the Miss 16 Contest in care of 16 Magazine.

In foreground are Miss 16 of America for 1967, Marsha Beaugez, and Dodie Myers, Miss 16 of America for 1966, with Victor Howland, founder of the Miss 16 contests.

The mighty mite? Maureen finds that rocks in the movies aren't what they seem to be.

THE FIFTH MISS 16 OF

Dick Clark crowns the new Miss 16, Melanie Wheaton, the first Canadian to win a major beauty contest held in the U.S.A.

MELANIE WHEATON of Montreal is the new Miss 16 of North America and the pride of Canada. On television, millions of people saw Melanie crowned by Dick Clark as the climax of the Miss 16 of North America pageant in Hollywood. First runner-up was Laurie Venning of Roanoke, Va., and second runner-up was Maureen Kopren of San Diego, Calif.

Melanie came to Hollywood as Miss 16 of Quebec and went back to Canada as Miss 16 of North America for 1968 after receiving 16 Magazine's Scholarship Award of $2,000 — the number of silver dollars it took to balance her weight on the scale.

Melanie is the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheaton of Montreal, Quebec and Moncton, N.B., Canada, and hesitantly entered the local Miss 16 Contest held by CFOX Radio in Montreal. At the same time, Laurie Venning was entering the Miss 16 Contest held by WROV Radio in Roanoke, Va., and Maureen Kopren entered KCBQ Radio's contest in San Diego, Calif. Today these three girls are fast friends, having shared the exciting experience of a week-long Miss 16 pageant in Hollywood.

All twelve finalists received gifts, met movie and television stars, visited movie studios, had their first jet airplane ride and appeared on television in the Hollywood Palace Theatre, as the Miss 16 pageant was presented on the American Bandstand program.

As the new Miss 16 of North America, Melanie Wheaton visited New York as the guest of Gloria Stavers, Editor of 16 Magazine, then made guest appearances on television in Cleveland, Ohio, New York and many other cities, including an appearance on the Up-Beat Show, which is seen in over fifty major cities. There will be many more exciting trips for Melanie during her year as Miss 16 of North America.

It all happened on the way to school one day, and it could happen to you. A friend said, "Melanie, why don't you send your picture to the Miss 16 Contest?"

Everybody's happy. Each girl wore the same beautiful, sleeveless turquoise knit skimmer trimmed in white from "JP's only," a junior petite division of the Puritan Fashions Corp., with coordinated shoes and stockings from A. S. Beck, Charles of the Ritz Cosmetics, Olla American handbags and a commemorative gold bracelet from 16 Magazine.

The first runner-up, Laurie Venning of Virginia, Melanie, and second runner-up Maureen Kopren of Southern California, with the judges: singer Billy Joe Royal, Dodie Myers (once a Miss 16 of America.) TV's Dennis Cole, starring in Felony Squad, and Rudy Solari of Garrison's Gorillas.

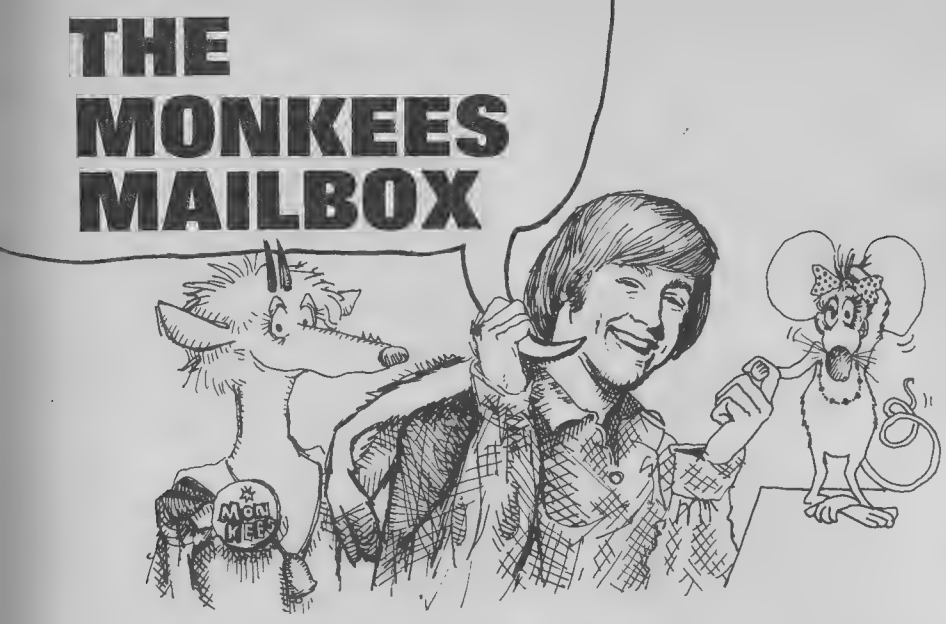
THE MONKEES MAILBOX



The ONLY place in the whole wide world where you can write a letter to your favorite Monkee—or to all four Monkees—and be sure that you will get a PERSONAL reply!

Dear Micky,

I was so mad when I read the letter in the January issue of 16 that terrible girl wrote saying that she hated your curly hair. I think that you should wear your hair like you want it—and not the way anybody on the outside wants you to wear it. Personally, I dig you with curly hair.

Thersa Gainor

Duluth, Minn.

MICKY'S CURLS

• Dear Thersa,

Thank you for digging my curls! 16 got literally thousands of letters about nothing but my hair!! The final consensus was that 60% liked it curly, 20% liked it the way it used to be, and 20% said it was up to me. I decided to leave it curly, but to trim it just a bit—just like you see it in this portrait of me on the facing page. Thanks for your interest.

MICKY

WHERE TO WRITE

Dear Monkees,

I have written to you all at least 50 times and have never gotten an answer. What can I do to get a reply?

Mary Buckley

New York City

• Dear Mary,

We all understand how it is to write and not receive an answer, but here are the facts: we get over 60,000 letters a week at the Screen Gems Studio. In order to answer all of these letters we would have to stop being Monkees; that is, stop doing TV shows and making records—and spend all of our time writing letters. After thinking it over, we decided (hopefully) that you much prefer us to be Monkees than letter-writers, so our "answers" to you (except for our letters here in 16 Magazine) are our TV show, our recordings and our live appearances. To those of you who are profound Monkee-lovers, we suggest that you join our groovy fan club. Send $1.50 to Monkee Fan Club, Box 88, Hollywood, Calif. You will get a really fab kit plus many surprises. Do not send your Monkee fan money to any other address but Box 88. Be sure to print your name and address clearly in your letter.

MONKEE PLANS

Dear Peter,

Could you please bring me up to date on the Monkees' plans for the future?

Abigail Garth

Durham, N.C.

• Dear Abigail,

Just about the time you read this, we will be starting our very first movie on the Columbia Studios' lot. We will be shooting for eight weeks, finishing about the middle of April. Then we are going off to the Orient on a tour. We will shoot parts of the movie in Japan, and then do a concert tour of that country followed by concerts in the Philippines, New Zealand and, finally, Hawaii. We have not decided whether to do a full concert tour of America this summer, but it is for sure that we will be doing weekend engagements all over the States during July and August. Hope to see you then.

PETER

MICKY MARRYING?

Dear Micky,

I read a story in a blagh magazine that was supposed to have been written by you. It was about you and Samantha Juste, and in it you said that you are in love with her and are going to marry her. Is this the truth?

Joyce Jobniela

Newport, Ky.

• Dear Joyce,

You might be interested to know that I did not write that story. I was as amazed as you were when I saw it. I date Sammy quite often, and it is likely that I will date her some more in the future—but I also date other girls. Hope that answers your question.

MICKY

WHATZA MOOG?

Dear Mike,

I just bought the Monkees' new Pices, Aquarius, Capricorn And Jones Ltd., and it is the grooviest Monkee album yet! On the back cover it says that Micky plays a moog synthesizer. What on earth is that?

Sheila Hutsfield

Falls Church, Va.

• Dear Sheila,

A moog synthesizer is an electronic instrument capable of producing an infinite number of electronic tone colors. It has a five-octave keyboard and 90 tuning knobs. It is about the same size as a piano, and the person who plays it must be a musician and a bit of an electronic engineer—as it has hundreds of controls, filter oscillators, inputs and outputs, etc. Whew!

MIKE

"MY HATES & LOVES"

STAR TREK'S "Chekov" confides the things that BUG him—and the things he DIGS!

I HATE people with closed minds. I feel that people of all ages have something to learn.

I HATE self-righteous people who feel that they are never wrong and always look negatively on others.

I HATE theater and movie critics who write well, but who don't have an accurate creative sense or know what makes a good performance.

I HATE the colors yellow and pink—especially for men's clothing.

I HATE rainy days. For some reason, they depress me.

I HATE it when people give up and don't see things through. That seems to be the easiest way out, but I think it eventually affects their personality and character.

I HATE the vegetables asparagus and cauliflower—and have to be force-fed eggplant!

I HATE even the thought of eating snails, eels or squid.

I HATE to see girls wearing pedal pushers. I don't think they do anything for them.

I HATE Bermuda shorts on men. I don't really like them on women, either.

I HATE exaggerated, teased hair on girls—for instance, the "bee-hive" hairdo.

I HATE girls to be overly made up.

I HATE hot, spicy foods.

I HATE cheap imitations of anything.

I HATE to see kids grow up too fast—you get old soon enough. They should enjoy and take advantage of their "young" years.

I HATE people who leave you hanging and won't give you a straightforward answer.

I HATE roaches. It's a fear I've carried with me since childhood.

I HATE snakes of any kind.

I LOVE rainy nights and thunder. I find it relaxing.

I LOVE the fall season. We live across from a park, and it's one of the loveliest sights in the valley.

I LOVE walking.

I LOVE sports, and I am a big fan of all the New York teams.

I LOVE New York City—it's the only place to be (unless you are unemployed!)

I LOVE to play tennis, basketball and ping-pong.

I LOVE my wife Judy. I think she looks like Audrey Hepburn.

I LOVE girls who have an aristocratic air, yet are very, very feminine.

I LOVE intrigue and any type of adventure that keeps me exploring.

I LOVE writing scripts, and I have just completed one for a film to be entitled I Wish I May. I hope to also produce the film, and it will star myself and my wife. Her stage name is Judy Levitt.

I LOVE mini-skirts if you have the right figure to wear them.

I LOVE mod clothing on both guys and girls.

I LOVE the blue Russian peasant shirt my wife made for me. She's quite a seamstress!

I LOVE animals—especially dogs.

I LOVE "Pan," our Hungarian sheepdog. He was named after a Greek God.

I LOVE horseback riding. I haven't had time to ride lately, but I used to ride bareback.

I LOVE good Western movies, and I have always wanted to star in one.

I LOVE long hair on girls. I thought I was partial to blondes, but I married a brunette (guess I just like girls!)

I LOVE Mexican-style furniture.

I LOVE European movies.

I LOVE Broadway plays and I would like to star in one myself someday—that's my biggest dream!

I LOVE to see girls in bikinis—but I find them very distracting!

I LOVE people who are loyal friends and who accept you for what you are in spite of your hang-ups.

I LOVE warm, congenial people.

I LOVE anything with the stamp of personal creativity. I'd rather pay more and get something that isn't mass-assembled.

I LOVE art, and although I'm no expert I would like to collect paintings and sculptures someday.

I LOVE European cars and would like to own a Mercedes-Benz.

I LOVE music of all kinds. Some of my favorite artists are Pete Seeger, the Beatles and the Mamas and Papas.

I LOVE the colors royal blue and burgundy.

I LOVE reading your letters, and I especially like the pictures my fans send me of themselves. Write to me in care of Star Trek, NBC-TV, 3000 W. Alameda, Burbank, Calif.

THE MASKED "MARVEL" (?) STRIKES AGAIN!

Terror stalks L.A.! Peering over half-lowered shades, Mark the Menace (GASP!) searches for his next victim! WHO WILL IT BE?!

"Ah—there he is—my target for today! See how calmly he sits—Reb Foster, the famous deejay and program director of L. A.'s station KRLA! Now, if I can just get this door open without his noticing—" (CREAK! SCREECH!)

"Hello, all you Lindsay-lovers out there in Lindsay-land! Yup, it's me—sitting in for that fading favorite, Reb Foster! How would you like to soothe your ears with some marvy music? Oh, good—"

"And now for the latest up-to-the-minute news! A darkly handsome masked marvel stole into station KRLA today and made a prisoner of famous deejay Reb Foster right where he—"

"Softly, now. I'll tiptoe very silently up behind him and make him my prisoner! Oops, he heard me! But too late, laddie boy—too late!"

"Got him! Now, I'll tie him to his chair! Thinks it's funny, eh? Well, who laughs last—laughs best!"

"—I'll just grab on to something nice. Why, here's a disc everybody can groove with! It's called Peace Of Mind sung by Mark Lindsay and Paul Revere and the Raiders!"

"ZOUNDS! The rascal has gotten loose and is holding me captive by (OOF!) my (OUCH!) queue (YIPES!)."

"That's the end of my story—and as you can see, it was all in fun.Reb looks none the worse for wear, and neither do I (I hope). The girl in the middle? Why, she's Sheryl Noga, a fan of Reb's and mine."

WHAT'S NEW WITH YOUR FAVORITES FROM COAST-TO-COAST!

DICK CLARK's new ABC-TV series Happening '68 promises to be the most exciting new show to hit the airways since Where The Action Is. As you know, Happening made its debut at 1:30 P.M. Saturday, January 6—starring its sparkling co-hosts MARK LINDSAY and PAUL REVERE and featuring such top pop stars as LULU, STRAWBERRY ALARM CLOCK, CHRIS CROSBY, the DOORS, SAM & DAVE, the BUCKINGHAMS, DINO, DESI and BILLY and the TURTLES — to mention just a few. Of course, the RAIDERS themselves will be featured on Happening from time to time, but MARK and PAUL will be the only regulars on the show.

Speaking of the DOORS, a Hollywood columnist (in reviewing the DOORS' appearance on The Ed Sullivan Show) said this about JIM MORRISON: "This lad made ELVIS PRESLEY seem like a choir boy.". . . Though he will continue his career as songwriter and singer, NEIL DIAMOND is branching out into dramatic TV and movies . . . MINI-MOM and some of her COWSILLS got the thrill of their lives recently when they were introduced to SAJID KHAN and JAY NORTH on a tour of MGM Studios . . . Another interesting "meeting" took place in London recently when the TROGGS — in search of a new sound — brought along their buddy "MARQUIS" to cut a nice, healthy, background roar on a session they were doing. Though "MARQUIS" is not a member of the musicians' union, no one challenged his status with the group . . . JIM MORRISON started a trend when he took his shirt off for 16's still picture camera (and later for Vogue Magazine). Latest shirt shucker is handsome PETER LEWIS, the rhythm guitar player for the MOBY GRAPE. Quo Vadis?

DINO, DESI & BILLY have formed their own publishing and record production company. THE BUCKINGHAMS TELL ON EACH OTHER

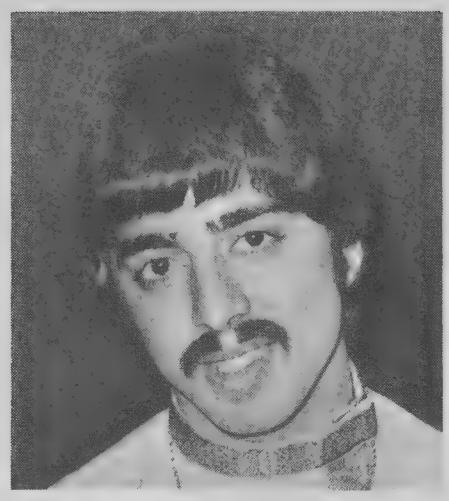
WELL, here we are on our own "merry-go-round" with the beautiful Buckinghams! Each of the boys was persuaded to "squeal" on one of the others and —boy!—did they have a lot of fun doing it! Denny couldn't wait to get started, so he was the first to "spill the beans" on his "victim" Nick.



NICK FORTUNE

Did you know that Nick's real last name is Fortuna? Well, it is, but he changed it to Fortune. I guess he thought it would be lucky! Nick is a happy-go-lucky person and a dedicated musician. His ambition is to be a great bass guitar player. (Don t tell him I said so, but we think he is already.) Nicky likes girls (don't we all?) who are well-groomed, sincere and honest. Here's a tip for you—learn to cook Italian food if you want to know the fast way to Nick's heart. And while you're learning, you can always feed him peanut butter and jelly sandwiches—'cos he loves them too! Nick was 21 last May 1, and is five feet and nine inches tall. He weighs 140 pounds, and has brown eyes and black hair. He recently grew a mustache. Let me know if you don't like it, and I'll shave it off while he's sleeping! Looks like my turn is up, so I'll let Nick tell you all about Marty.

MARTY GREBB

Martin Joseph is his real name. I saw it on his birth certificate—which also stated his birth date: September 2, 1946. He's grown since then, and he now stands six feet tall and weighs 155 pounds. Marty has brown hair and hazel eyes (with specs of yellow in each eye)—really! (Just ask him!) Marty is our most versatile musician because he plays organ, sax, guitar, piano, drums, harmonica, trumpet and bagpipes—not all at once, though. He also sings lead and background. Marty likes girls who are very natural and he hates phonies. He never plans a date, just does whatever suits his fancy at the time. I guess you could say Marty is the comedian of the group, because he keeps us laughing and comes out with some very amusing comments! He is always striving for perfection and claims that he wants to "progress at the speed of time." Here comes Marty now to talk about Jon-Jon.

JON-JON POULOS

His real name is John P. Poulos, Jr. He got the nickname "Jon-Jon" from a California girl, and now that's all we call him. He has one brother Tony who is married and has two baby girls, so that makes him an "Uncle". Jon-Jon has brown hair and brown eyes. He weighs 145 pounds and is five feet and eleven inches tall. Jon-Jon likes girls who are sincere, honest and understanding. He claims that he doesn't care where the girl wants to go on a date, but I must warn you—he's unpredictable and doesn't like to do the same thing twice! The only exception to this is watching TV (his favorite shows are Time Tunnel and The Smothers Brothers). Jon-Jon likes all sports and would like to be successful as a businessman as well as a musician. Now that I've told on our drummer, it's his turn to give you the scoop on Carl.

CARL GIAMARESE

Carl is the "baby" of the group, because he is the youngest (he'll be 21 on August 21). He is also the tallest member of the group (he stands six feet and one quarter of an inch tall!). Carl weighs 148 pounds and has dark brown hair and eyes. He claims that he doesn't want to get married for many, many moons (if ever), but he certainly likes girls! He is usually attracted to shy, understanding young ladies and doesn't like snobs—I guess that's because he's very sincere himself. Carl was a pretty good commercial artist before he became involved in music. Now we're proud to have him as our lead guitarist. He also sings lead and background. Carl loves all sorts of gymnastics and seafood is his fave dish—particularly oysters, clams, lobster and snails. Carl is getting restless, so I'd better let him take his turn to tell you about Denny.

DENNY TUFANO

Every group has one, and I guess Denny is our "Casanova". It might have something to do with the fact that he is so good-looking that girls naturally notice him. I hate to admit it, but he's a nice guy too! In case you're interested, Denny is five feet and ten inches tall and weighs 150 pounds. His hair and eyes are both brown. Denny is single, of course, and claims that he is looking for offers. He likes girls who are well-groomed, who have good personalities and who are level-headed. Denny loves to take long walks. One thing we have in common is that Denny is also interested in commercial designing, art and writing. His hobbies are auto racing, photography, fashion designing and—you guessed it—girl watching! In addition to being our lead singer, Denny also plays guitar, harmonica and drums.

THE LO-DOWN por La Gatita

Heartache time ahead for the lovely young girl star of a TV series. She's hung-up on the handsome young boy star of another TV series, and he doesn't believe in going steady — not for very long, anyway . . . Newest "buddies" — DEANA MARTIN and DAVY JONES. Nowadays, DAVY even enjoys joining the MARTIN family at their weekly "off limits" Sunday night sit-down dinner! . . . SALLY FIELD bought herself a brand new Ferrari. Gee, SALLY, you could have saved yourself a few bucks if you'd bought MARK LINDSAY's old Ferrari. It's for sale, you know . . . PETER NOONE celebrated his 20th birthday by taking a holiday. After that, he and the HERMITS toured Brazil and Argentina, and hoped to stop in Miami for two days to do The Jackie Gleason Show . . . Ex-Spoonful ZALLY YANOVSKY just completed his first LP for Buddha Records — Alive And Well In Argentina — and has also taped a TV pilot in which he is a regular on a panel show. It's called Get The Picture. (What — no socks?) . . . The WHO will return to the States for a six-week tour in February. At the same time their newest Decca LP, The Who's Greatest Flops, will be released. The LP will consist of tunes they've cut which were never big hits in America. By the way, you can write to the WHO at 888 Eighth Ave., Suite 5N, New York City.

Watch out for adorable 16-year-old EDWARD MICHAEL McQUIGGAN of Hartford, Conn. He just cut his first single record, so you will be hearing a lot about him. If you wanta get in on the ground floor, you can write to MIKE at 93 Phelps St., E. Hartford, Conn. . . . PETER McENERY was injured when he was thrown from a horse he was riding while shooting a film in Sicily. He had a ten-inch cut in his arm and received a brain concussion. At press time, his condition was reported as "serious" . . . Look for two special surprise announcements in the near future — one to come from America's most popular group and the other to come from the dark and handsome "most popular" individual teen star — right now a visitor to our shores . . . Did you know that lovely LULU not only can sing up a storm, but that she's a great painter too? Maybe LULU and DINO DANELLI will do an art show together at a gallery one day!

Sally — she'll be driving a Ferrari.

Panelist Zal.

Who but the Who.

Lulu — she paints too!

Peter — condition "serious."

Mike — one to watch.

Herman — he's 20!

"COME TO MY HOUSE"

Jay North invites you to visit his home, meet his mom and get acquainted with his ever-curious cat!

COME AND VISIT ME at my home in Studio City, Calif. I want you to meet my mom Alixe and show you around the small ranch-type house in which we live (we can also duck into my pool for a swim, if you enjoy water sports and there's plenty of California sunshine!) Most of all, though, I want to sit and talk with you, so that we can both get to know each other. And I want you to become very good friends with "Blue Boy," my blue Persian cat. Since he's almost always under my feet or in my lap, he just won't be left out—so we'll have a nice get-together, the three of us!

"Come on in! I've been waiting for you!"

ALL PHOTOS BY G. STAVERS. WORLD COPYRIGHT 1966 BY 16 MAGAZINE.

"Meet my mom Alixe. She's been looking forward to meeting you too!"

"How about a little background music while we talk? Anything special you'd like?"

"Wanta play football? It's my fave game, you know—though I admit my bedroom is hardly the place for it!"

"All that exercise made me hungry! You too? Well, then, let's eat!"

"Bells are ringin'! Be with you again in a minute. Hey, it's a call from a 16 reader! Lucky me!"

"Just like I told you—here's 'Blue Boy' and he's dyin' to get to know you! So let's sit and chat. You start, and tell me all about yourself. . . ."

"MY DREAM GIRL"

BY SAJID KHAN

"Be girlish, be feminine, and I will respect you, protect you, look after you, and — most important of all — I will love you."

AS I WROTE in the last issue of 16, the greatest thrill of my life was the first time I kissed a girl. I was ten years old then and I am 16 now — and my attitude has not changed one bit. I think that girls are the greatest creation since the Taj Mahal — they are mysterious, exciting, marvelous. And I have never met a single one who was not somehow beautiful.

When I am alone and have a chance to think my very, very private thoughts, I find that those thoughts are usually about girls. I don't think about one girl in particular. I seem to remember all of the good qualities and characteristics of the various girls I have been lucky enough to know and date in the past. I have taken the liberty of making a list of these qualities — that is, of enumerating them in such a way that, if you're interested, you may learn the secret way to my heart.

First off, I like rather serious girls. I mean, I don't like flippant girls who act as though the things that go on between us are not important. For instance, if I phone a girl, I just hate it if she acts indifferent, or giggles or babbles away about her other dates and what she has to do. I would never treat a girl that way, and it hurts me when a girl treats me that way.

I like girls who are kind and considerate. By this, I don't mean that a girl should go around acting like Florence Nightingale all the time. What I mean is: she should really be kind and care about the feelings of others; she should really be considerate and act in such a way as not to offend or upset others.

Most important of all, I find myself attracted to girls who are friendly. I enjoy being with girls who are warm and outgoing. If I can begin a relationship with a girl as friend-to-friend, it seems that that relationship endures when others fall by the way. You see, if a girl and a boy can really be friends first, then they can take the ups and downs that are bound to occur later in a romantic involvement.

Last of all, I would like to remind you lovely and "vivacious" young American girls that I am from a foreign country — and where I come from, the man is The Man! If you are somewhat forward or aggressive, then you will just have to cool that when you are with me. I want to be in charge of you — all the time! You are my girl — and don't forget it.

Be girlish, be feminine, and I will respect you, protect you, look after you, and — most important of all — I will love you.

Dashing Davy sent CHRISTINA one of his favorite tambourines (and autographed it, too); a large personally autographed picture of himself; a super-surprise gift; and a full year's free subscription to swingin' 16 Magazine. Dreamsville does it again!

GUDRUN HENDEWERK of Salida, Col., has gone absolutely ape over handsome Sajid Khan. GUDRUN said that "anything at all" from her idol would send her to seventh heaven on a permanent basis!! Sajid went all-out to insure a tasty trip to Dreamsville for her by autographing a giant photograph of himself, writing her a personal note and sending her a special gift from India. Hope that makes you happy, GUDRUN — Dreamsville tries harder!

DONNA SANTANGELO of Staten Island, N.Y., is in a trance every Monday night between 7:30 and 8, when the Monkees fill her TV screen. DONNA wanted a "keepsake" from the fab foursome, so she should be as happy as a lark by now! Davy, Micky, Peter and Mike sent her an autographed script from the TV series; a large, personally autographed picture; a brand-new LP — and a record player to play it on! How's that for a Dreamsville "keepsake", DONNA?

Sooner or later, Dreamsville will get around to you!

DAVY'S DEPT.

Now you can have a "private conversation" with Davy in every single issue of 16 Magazine — in his own exclusive department!

SURPRISE! It's me, Davy Jones — and beginning with this issue of 16 I will have my own special department here each month! Davy's Dept. will be like a personal, private "luv" letter from me to you every single month of the year. I'm thrilled to have this opportunity to speak to you heart-to-heart, and I hope you enjoy our "private conversations" as much as I do. By the time you read this, I'll be returning from my "vacation" in London, Manchester and other places. My buddy David Pearl and I departed on December 21 to spend Christmas with my dad and sisters in Manchester and then do a little traveling.

My life in Hollywood is full of exciting events too. My latest craze is playing "flag" football. Each player has a flag or a handkerchief tied to his belt and if you touch the "flag" of the player carrying the ball, he has to stop where he is. Both teams are composed of Screen Gems' actors, producers, directors and other personnel. We play at Hazeltien Park in the San Fernando Valley every Sunday afternoon.

If I don't go to Palm Springs, my Saturdays are spent playing golf. I love, love, love golf! It's fascinating and relaxing — even though I am not very good at it yet.

HOME SWEET HOME

I decided not to move from my house in the Hollywood Hills, so say goodbye to my idea of a ranch in Malibu! I really do like my present home, so I am not upset a bit about not moving. In fact, I am very happy. My garage — which used to be full of mail — has been cleared out and I have made my own personal recording studio, where I can sing, play and then listen to my own playbacks.

The interior of the house, by the way, is being completely redecorated — by me. The main color I am using is my favorite color — which is blue. I guess you could call the furniture style a combination of Olde English and Modern Comfortable!

I have a brand new friend living with me. Don't get nervous — it's just "Susie", my new German shepherd pup. "Susie", the gift of a fan, is black and is about five months old. "Susie" is a he, but I named him "Susie" in memory of my first dog — the one which was stolen. In my garage these days, you will find a brand new Honda car. Yes, it is made by the very same people who make Honda motorbikes. It is British racing green, has its own hi-fi stereo inside — and it's a "gem"

CRRASH! !

All is not peaceful at chez Jones, however. Recently, some girls broke into the garage and, for some unknown reason, released the brake on my Cadillac. The Cadillac rolled down the cement drive and crashed into a pole! The front was dented and all the windows were broken.

As a result of this incident, I am forced to build an electric fence around my property and to install electric gates with a speaker box on them — so that I can find out, in advance, who is entering the grounds.What a drag!

Remember all that mail in my garage I mentioned a moment ago? Well, don't worry, it hasn't been thrown away. It is all being safely kept at my new office — and let me assure you, every single letter will be personally answered by me. All I ask is that you please be patient.

ZILCH CATALOG & FAN CLUB

I know that many of you ordered your Zilch catalog quite a while ago — and I hope that you have received yours by now. But if you haven't, be patient about that too. I got so carried away in making the catalog that it was my own fault that it got delayed. All of you who sent in a quarter will get your catalog. All of you who didn't, and who would like to get a catalog, now have to send 50 cents. But hold for a min! You 50 cent-ers will not only get a Zilch catalog, but you will also get a very groovy, special deluxe all-color photographic thingy-surprise! It's too incredible to describe. Just take my word — it's a gas! Anyway, if you want a Zilch catalog and a thingy-surprise, send 50 cents to Zilch Catalog, 9538 Brighton Way, Beverly Hills, Calif.

For those of you who are — and I hope some of you are — my staunch supporters and friends, I have decided to open my very own fan club. This club is under my own supervision, and I can assure you that there's nothing like it in the whole wide world. When you join, you get an assortment of exclusive Davy Jones pictures and autographs, a full bio on me, a membership card and wallet photo—plus regular newsletters, of course. But that's not all! I have created something just for you which I really believe will knock you out. It is something personally concerned with me and from me, and you can't get anything like it anywhere—except through my own fan club! So, if you'd like to join the Davy Jones Official Fan Club, send $2 to this address: 9358 Brighton Way, Beverly Hills, Calif., and you will get your kit — along with my "creation" pronto!

S'all for now, me darlin's. See you right here in the next issue of 16 Magazine. It's the April issue and it goes on sale February 20th. Dont be late — I'll be waiting for you!

BILLY SMITH

(THEIR VERY BEST FRIEND)

DELIVERS THE RASCALS TO YOU!

Eddie philosophizes with uplifted thumb and forefinger while Billy gives you his best over-the-shoulder "See-what-I-mean?" look.

(AND YOU'D BETTER HANG ON TIGHT, CHICKIES, COS THEY JUST MIGHT PICK YOU UP AND FLY AWAY!)

NORMALLY I'm not one who talks to or about friends out of turn—but I refuse to hold my breath any longer! Here is my honest-to-goodness, true-to-the-bone opinion on where those four cats—Dino, Eddie, Felix and Gene (also known as the Rascals)—really and truly are at. (I hope the guys'll still speak to me after this—here goes!):

EDDIE

First of all, let me fill you in on Eddie—whose biggest hang-up is beads, beads, beads! Oh, yeah—and scarves (he's always tying them around his neck and the neck of anyone else available—especially me!) And another thing—Eddie is always funny (day-in and day-out), and I can never, never top him. Even when I spend my nights and days reading joke books, watching funny TV shows, and roaming around in flowered vests—Eddie is still funnier than I could ever be!

Another thing about Eddie that gets me is his ability to philosophize about everything from Mary Janes to the moon to his own beard. The truth is, Eddie is the only guy alive who can do the shing-a-ling and rap about the possibilities of meditation at the same time!

Actually, Eddie and I are the very best of friends, but I can still tell on him—'cos that's what true friendship is, isn't it? In fact, I'm writing a book about the "World of Eddie Brigati." I'll tell you more about it another time.

DINO

As for Dino—you want the truth, the whole "terrible" truth about Dino?! Well, for one thing, every time we shake hands, he gets paint all over me. That's because he always comes to the office (or the recording studio) after a two- or three-hour oil painting session! It's all right, though, because along with purple and red palm and finger prints, he sometimes gives me one of his creations. And a Dino Danelli painting is truly a work of art. I plan to hang onto the ones I have 'til I'm too old to work, then I'll sell 'em and retire—a rich DOM!

Dino is one of the hardest working, most active musicians I've ever known. He never stops. When I try to talk to him about the new sculpture/album cover he designed for the Rascals' latest Atlantic LP Once Upon A Dream, he just keeps rap-tap-tap-a-tapping on my head while he's telling me about the meaning of the various objects on the cover—and they all have a personal meaning to the Rascals!

And try sitting down with Dino in his gorgeous new Manhattan apartment! You'll find him working out a wild pattern with a paint brush in one hand, and inventing a drum lick or two (on the coffee table, no less!) with the other hand. As you try to carry on a conversation above all this noise and in the face of this activity, Dino The Sphinx just sits and smiles cryptically at you.

GENE

Gene is another story altogether! His thing is cereal—but at 4 A.M. in the morning?! That's right, Gene's best-kept secret is his 4 A.M. cereal banquets—and he sometimes calls me, Eddie, Dino and Felix and asks, "Why don't you come on over?"—to share his early-morning snack with him! I'll never forget these calls from Gene (it's a relief to finally tell someone how I really feel about them!) All I can say is: snap, crackle, pop and a cheerio to you, Gene!

And now for some sports-talk about the Rascals' lead guitarist. Gene is a baseball player—devotee, fan, disciple, scholar! He'll just happen to know (if the question should slip out of your mouth) who made the last five hits in the last five World Series—and exactly what time the balls bounced off the bats! I have seen Gene eyeing Atlantic Studios (where the Rascals record in Manhattan) as though it were a miniature Shea Stadium—mentally setting up bases, ready to start a game at any moment!

And here is Gene's final secret—he is decorating a new home he just bought for his parents on Long Island, but he is planning to decorate each room so that each will represent a different period of history—from cavemen days to ultra-mod. Watch him go!

FELIX

Felix, the organist and sometimes lead singer for the Rascals, is yet another story! He wears brightly colored shirts, see—covered with hearts, windmills, evergreen trees, anything—shirts that are visible 85 miles away! And they're all gifts from his fans! That's "Fe's" (his nickname from high school days) untold secret. He wears literally everything his fans send him—and loves it—and them, as it were!

The other thing I'd like you to know about Fe is this: He loves nature. He's gone on everything about nature—trees, flowers, rain, wind, hail, sleet, whirlpools, hurricanes, blizzards, cyclones, tornadoes—everything! He's known to get frantic if you refuse to go for a walk with him when the temperature is 55 degrees below zero and there's five feet of snow on the ground! Beware of "naturalist" Fe! He says he gets inspiration from lightning storms. Like POW!

●

So there they are—the real Rascals—and I think I'll head out the back door before they find out what I have just told you! Only joking—they really won't mind, cos you're our friends too. And this is just the beginning of what the Rascals and I hope will be a long, happy and close friendship between us and you!

Eddie, Felix, Gene and Dino peer at you from a Wells Fargo truck (they do hang out in the strangest places, don't they?)

HATES 16!

Dear (?) Miss Stavers,

Why don't you throw yourself into a flaming lava pit and take smelly old 16 with you? As far as I'm concerned, 16 is triple-ick and the same goes for those four finky globs called the MONKEES. They can't sing, act or even speak English! I dare you to print this letter.

How could anyone call them snobs?
